Using Resource Lists: a tutorial for students

Introduction

Resource Lists bring together sets of information resources recommended by academic staff for each of your modules or parts of your programme.

Through them you can directly access online articles, ebooks, and websites, and view the availability of physical items such as print journals and books.

This tutorial is made up of 3 videos. Follow the links below to watch the videos.

1. Accessing your Resource Lists.
2. Viewing resources in your lists.
3. Useful tools in Resource Lists.
